

LUXURIOUS DESTINATIONS COLLECTION

A world-renowned singer with a voice that transported her audiences, Grace Kennedy has adapted that skill to take people around the world, sharing her knowledge through her new Luxurious Destinations Collection, the signature brand of Grace Kennedy Events.

Grace's singing career began at the Star Finders Club in London. Before long, she was performing all over the UK and went on to front her own TV show with appearances from the likes of Bruce Forsyth, Al Jarreau, The Pointer Sisters and Lulu. The Grace Kennedy Show saw her at the BBC for three years and she won a BAFTA before returning to music. Recording successful albums, for DJM and the BBC, Grace had hits in the US and UK charts. "I wanted to be a key player in this new world and understand it. I put huge productions together - I knew I could do it because I had done it before!"

This experience, combined with her extensive luxury travel knowledge and meticulous event planning, has created her reputation for delivering top level service, consistency and the "wow" factor.

Based in Mayfair, Grace's company can deliver upon any client's travel desire. "I've seen things from both sides, performing concerts, galas and special appearances globally enabling me to have a clear vision of what people need from a luxurious wedding or event, and giving me the know-how and global network to deliver those magical experiences that live forever in the memory".

A Grace Kennedy Event is never off-the-peg, she can deliver whatever is required.

For instance, by exclusive arrangement with the Paris Opera House, Grace Kennedy Events can arrange an incredible private dining experience on the hallowed stage. Clients have private access to the Opera House for a personal and personalised one-off experience. Musical accompaniment can, of course, be offered too; Grace Kennedy toured starring in Carmen Jones so may even do a number herself.
